

Multiple-entry Visa Requirements for Chinese Citizens with Substantial Income

1. Eligibility for Applicants at Consulate-General of Japan in Sydney

- a. Chinese citizens who legally reside in NSW or NT with valid long-term Australian visas
*Tourist visa holders cannot apply at Sydney Consulate.
- b. The spouse or children of the sponsor who already has the valid Japanese multiple-entry visa

2. Visa Conditions

Multiple-entry visas valid for 3 years with a period of stay up to 30 days on each entry or valid for 5 years with a period of stay up to 90 days on each entry

3. Required Documents

*Please prepare the necessary documents on top of the single entry visa requirements.

- a. One application form with a passport sized photo
- b. Valid passport (MRP or ePassport in compliance with the ICAO standard)
- c. Valid Australian visa
Please visit VEVO website below and bring the printed visa entitlement information of yours.
<http://www.immi.gov.au/e Visa/vevo.htm>
- d. A letter stating the reasons to apply for the multiple-entry visa
- e. Proof of residential address in NSW or NT
- f. Two or more of the following documents to show the applicant's high income
 - i. Bank statement with the full account information and the most recent 6 months transaction history (up to the date of application)
 - ii. Recent payslips
 - iii. A certificate of employment that shows the start date, position, and annual income
 - iv. Other documents to show substantial annual income and financial capability

*If applying as the spouse or children of the sponsor who already has the valid Japanese multiple-entry visa, a copy of the sponsor's Japanese visa is required instead of the documents (f)

- g. Proof of relationship to the main applicant (if applying as a family) or the sponsor such as Marriage Certificate or Birth Certificate

*English translation is required if the documents are issued in other languages